

Demystifying The Modern Portrait (Marie Rossettie)

In order to explore the broadest variety of techniques and materials with the least upfront expense to students, a $25 material fee will be necessary to cover the cost of paper and supplies.

Additionally, students are required to have a set of colored pencils and a kneaded eraser. (Recommendations for other materials based on the students unique interests will be made throughout the course, but they will not be required to make additional purchases.)